Road construction is currently underway on Route 3A in Billerica.

Hayes Instrument Service remains open for business during this work. If you are traveling to our location, please allow extra time for possible traffic delays or temporary access changes in the immediate area.

Thank you for your patience. Please contact the office with any questions. We look forward to serving you.